DEDICATION

Virginia Catherine Coltrane

For twelve years Miss Coltrane has efficiently conducted the Vocational Home Economics department. Through her efforts and leadership, homemaking in the entire school district has been greatly improved. She has probably visited more homes and talked with more parents than any other person connected with our school. A familiar sight is that of Miss Coltrane and her black Ford- "Elizabeth" - on the way to visit students in all kinds of weather.

Her manner is quiet and unassuming but her record of service to this school and community will stand on its own merit.

A person of integrity, spirit, and understanding, she has greatly influenced the character of the students who have worked under her guidance. Her calm poise in meeting every situation and the quiet ease with which she accomplishes her work are qualities which we, the students, aspire to develop.

Because we recognize her genuine character, her sincerity of purpose and the richness of her personality, we, the Senior Class of 1947, lovingly dedicate this volume of Maroon and Grey to Miss Virginia Coltrane.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '48

BY NAT JONES

All classes that have graduated from FFranklin School since 1929 have been an honor to this Alma Mater and we believe that the Class of 1948, my class will carry on this tradition.

We entered high school in 1944, fifty-three strong. We were green, young and unsophisticated and thought we had to study. We numbered so many and were so ignorant we had to have two home room teachers, Mrs. Pearl Hatcher Starling and Mrs. Louisa Johnson Jordan. Due to the fact that we were in two rooms, we did not effect a class organization.

Our social life was rather limited. We had a Christmas party in our home rooms, and our class party in the gym.

But we were trying to learn the ropes of high school. Slowly, but surely our class was winning honors. The following were Boy Scouts: Bill Belton, Nat Jones, Ivan Bowman Donald Blackburn, Donald Byrd, and Jimmie Shelton. In basket ball, Billy Grey Belton and Baxter Smith were beginning to make a name for themselves. Katherine, Wilma, and Betty tried their luck at cheer leading, so you see we were beginning to take our part in the extra curricula activities of the High School. By the close of our Freshman year we numbered only fifty, but we were looking forward to our Sophomore year.

Forty-five important Sophomores returned for our second year in High School and all our greenness was gone--This year all forty-seven of us had Mrs. Starling as our home room teacher, and did we have a merry class! We organized our class with the following officers:

President. . . . . Billy G. Belton
Vice President . . . .Jimmie Shelton
Secretary. . . . . Edgar Hodge
Treasurer. . . . . .Gladys Gravley

Again Billy Grey Belton and Baxter Smith were making a name for themselves and our class in basket ball. As Baxter and Billy Grey played ball, Frances Quesinberry and Adele Caudle lead yells. One rather important thing happened to us. Our picnic planned for the mountain had to be held in the gym, due to rain,but we had a good time in our typical, happy-go-lucky way. But, our Sophomore year was ending with only forty-five in number.

A marked change came over us between our Sophomore and Junior year. We grew up. We donned our first formals. As we started our Junior year we had only thirty-five in our class. We considered ourselves fortunate in having for our home room teacher, Miss Louise Kendall, and we grew in class spirit under her guidance.

Our class selected as officers:

President. . . . . .Jimmie Shelton
Vice President . . . . . Frances Quesinberry
Secretary. . . . . Katherine Blackburn
Treasurer. . . . . .Bernice Noonkester

No Junior will ever forget our Sneak Day, to the mountains of Virginia. We were not supposed to have a Sneak Day, but we did, and paid for it. But it was worth it. Our Junior party was at Cumberland Knob. Miss Kendall said we held the record for being the "biggest eaters". We had the best time.

And who will ever forget our Junior-Senior dinner at the Blue Ridge Hotel, the first time in the history of any class at Franklin that a class has been guests at the hotel? Amid a scene of rainbow colors, the Class of '48 were hosts to the Class of '47, with Jimmie Shelton as Toast Master, ---- we had a perfect evening.

The Junior cheer-leaders were: Mary Ann, Frances, Katherine, and Wilma Frances.

Another event in our Junior history, never to be forgotten was our play, "Introducin' Susan" coached by Miss Kendall. The cast included Baxter Smith, Donald Byrd, Donald Blackburn, Birchell J. Hiatt, Hester Quesinberry, Billy Grey Belton, Wilma Frances Broome, Katherine Blackburn, Jimmie Shelton, Betty Smith and myself.

Our Junior year was passing too rapidly--commencement was at hand. The Junior Marshals were: Wilma FFrances Broome, Frances Quesinberry, Jimmie Shelton, Bernice Noonkester, Lucille Leftwich,and Edgar Hodge. On Class Night we formed a rainbow arch in the Processional for the Seniors and realized that we were the incoming Senior Class of Franklin H High School.

Then came our Senior year, the most important and historical of all four years. Many events crowd themselves into this too short year.

In the fall of 1947, we numbered thirty-three--tonight we have thirty-one Seniors who by consistent effort have completed their twelve years which brings them to this point of graduation. Our home room teacher has been Mrs. Locklear. At the first of our school year, she said she had only one request to make of us and that was--"To act as Seniors". Wonder if we have? We knew that it was very important to think seriously when we formulated our class organization, so we selected as our officers:

Pres. . . Jimmie Shelton Sec. . . Frances Quesinberry
Vice-Pres . .Edgar Hodge Cheer-
Treas . .Wilma F. Broome Leader. . Katherine Blackburn

Program Committee: Betty L. Lawrence, Chairman: Donald Byrd, Gladys Gravley.

Mascots: Louise Shelton and Kermit Lawrence, Jr.

Class Ideals: Color: Blue and White. Flower: Rose. Motto: He conquers who conquers himself. Yell: Who are we, we beg to state. We're the Class of 48.

With these leaders and ideals we started our Senior year.

In every activity of school life were found the Seniors.

Honor Students were: Edgar Hodge, Nat Jones, Betty Lou Lawrence, Wilma F. Broome, Jimmie Shelton, Frances Quesinberry, Bernice Noonkester, Pauline Thomas, and Lucille Leftwich.
4-H. Club Work:--Wilma Francis Broome and Frances Quesinberry, Pauline Thomas.
Forensic Club,--A new club organized this year under the guidance of Mr. John D. Hiatt,--Nat Jones, President: Jimmie Shelton, Vice President: Bernice Noonkester, Secretary: Betty Lou Lawrence, Treasurer: and Wilma F. Broome, Publicity Director.
F. H. A.-- Betty Lou Lawrence, Adele Caudle, Mildred Beamer, Frances Quesinberry, and Pauline Thomas.
F. F. A. -- Ivan Bowman, Donald Byrd, Donald Blackburn, Jimmie Shelton and Ernest Snow.
In Athletics,--Those same two, Billy Grey Belton and Baxter Smith. Baxter made Yadkin Valley All-Star Team.
Senior Cheer Leaders,-- Frances Quesinberry, Adele Caudle, Mary Ann Nichols and Ernest Snow.

On the newspaper staff. Franklin Hi-Life,—Editor-in-Chief, Wilma F Broome: Assistant Editor, Pauline Thomas: Exchange Editor, France Quesinberry: Sports Editor, Berbiedeffie Slate: Typists, Jimmie Shel ton and Lucille Lefwich: Senior Reporters, Mildred Beamer: Kather ine Blackburn and Birchell Heath: Advertising Managers,, Gladys Gra ley and Ivan Bowman.

Now, You may not believe this, but Franklin School could not ha operated this year if it had not been for Jimmie Shelton, Ivan Bowma Don Blackburn, and Nat Jones. Why?—Well, the buses would never hav operated if it had not been for this quartet of bus drivers.

The year book, "Ye Olde Maroon and Grey", with Miss Kendall as orga izer had the following Seniors on its staff: Wilma F. Broome and Ji mie Shelton, Co-Editors; Nat Jones, Advertising: Donald Byrd, Bu iness Manager: and Edgar Hodge, Subscription Manager: Lucille Lef wich, Typist.

Probably one of our most traditional events was that of "Sne Day", April 1. Words in the English language cannot describe t events of that day: food, drinks, straw, dust, cold weather, hot su shine , couples, etc. Then, the next day—Well, let's skip that da

Quite different was the scene of our Junior Senior banquet he at the Blue Ridge Hotel, Friday Evening, April 30, at eight o'cloc The Senior Boys really looked like Senior Boys for once, dressed f to kill, and the girls with varied colored evening dresses and co sages of roses marked another event in our history.

The Senior play under the direction of Mrs. Locklear, given Apr 23, was a farce by Jay Tobias. The Seniors really feel proud of th play, not only because of the way it was presented, but also becau of the fact that we have it to a full house and has such large door ceipts. The cast was: Baxter Smith, Wilma F. Broome, Billy Grey Be ton, Katherine Blackburn, Nat Jones, Betty Lou Lawrence, Frances Qu sinberry, Edgar Hodge and Hester Quesinberry, with Jack Miller efficient stage manager.

Another event in our Senior year was when for the first time the history of a Senior Class we made a trip to Washington, D.C., charge of Mr. and Mrs. Broome. This trip will help us appreciate mo than ever the greatness of our nation.

Now if you notice through all of this history I've left untouch the main reason we are here—that of our academic training. Each us have made our sixteen units required by the State of North Carol for graduation. We have had the fundamentals, 'readin', writin' a 'rithmetic. At times we thought teachers and lesson assignments we unreasonable, but as we look back tonight we realize we have been fo tunate in having the faculty and course of study we have had.

Now we are through. Our history is written and recorded. T History of the Senior Class of 1948 of Franklin High School.

CLASS PROPHECY

BY IVAN BOWMAN

A prophesy for the Seniors of 1948, at the end of the next ter years, 1958, the following:

I see Billy Grey Belton, one of our most popular boys, running a barber shop on the main highway of Depot Hill township.

Back at our Alma Mater, Franklin High School, Miss Coltrane has resigned as Home Economics teacher in favor of one of her former students, Mildred Beamer.

Donald Blackburn is rising to fame as a singer on W.P.A.Q. daily program. His program is one of the most popular.

The following are nurses: Katherine Blackburn, after completing her training at Martin Memorial Hospital, specialized in heart troubles at John Hopkins--so she would know how to treat Kester in case she decided to break his heart by not marrying him.

Adele Caudle, Betty Lou Lawrence, Mavis Martin, Mary Ann Nichols and Betty Smith finished their training at High Point Hospital. Adele Specialized in red-hair patients due to Nat's influence, Betty Lou Lawrence in facial expression, why, we don't know. Mavis Martin in sore fingers, 'cause she has so many sore fingers. Mary Ann in fever blisters, and Betty Smith in the cause and results of giggles.

As State supervisor of Home Economics in Alaska we find Dernice Noonkester. Who would ever have thought she'd get that far away from home?

As for myself, Ivan Bowman, I am running a successful produce business between Cana, Virginia and Charleston, West Virginia. I own a fleet of one hundred trucks, got my experience driving bus No. 2 at Franklin.

After Wilma Frances Broome attended Woman's college and Duke University, she came back to her home town White Plains, and is editor, manager and sole operator of the White Plains Daily.

Over on Depot Hill you see an array of radio beams--that is Donald Byrd's private radio station W.J.N.N.

Our married Senior girl. Mrs. Birchell Johnson Hiatt, or Mrs. Stuart Hiatt is keeping house and Stuart, Jr.

As for one of our G.I. Seniors. Albert Easter, owns a Buick, and spends his spare time as patrolman riding by the house near Green Hill where Verna and the kids live.

Three of our Senior girls became beauticians: Frances Quesinberry Berbiedeile Slate and Mary Lou Hooker. Their beauty establishment, at least, North Carolina, covers one acre of land and is five stories high--evidently lots of people are trying to improve on their looks to support such an establishment.

Edgar Hodge and Ernest Snow started their business together. Edgar Hodge received his degree in law from the University of North Carolina, took Ernest's defence on a charge of stealing cars. Edgar won, and Ernest, with his stolen cars, runs a garage at Lowgap, North Carolina.

Hester Quesinberry is traveling secretary for "The Nat Jones" Plastic Company of Mount Airy. Hester has just completed her one hundredth trip around the world and Nat is a billionaire.

As for Jack Miller, a cafe operator, he is going broke because he eats all his profit.

Baxter Smith is also a cafe operator. He, too, is going broke, due to the fact he still can't resist pretty girls and he feeds all of the on the "house".

Mount Airy's sky scraper, thirty stories high is owned by Jimmie Shelton. He is chief executive. In his office personnel we find Gladys Grayley and Lucille Leftwich, his two most efficient secretaries, and Warren Nowlin owns a theater in this same building.

Bobby Holder now owns Holder's Grocery Store, formerly Poore's Grocery, which was one of the oldest stores in Mount Airy, now under new management.

Pauline Thomas is a personnel director at Macey's in New York City. Says she never gets lonesome for Windy Ridge.

Our little mascots, Louise Shelton and Kermit Lawrence, Jr., are attending Franklin School. Louise wants to go to Hollywood and become a cow girl actress, and Kermit wants to extablish an old time blacksmith shop.

By 1958 I think the class of 1948 is making a success, don't you?

MEMORIES

BY MARY LOU HOOKER

The night was hot and sultry
As I sat there on the floor
And a-knocking and a-bumping
Seemed to come upon the door.

Suddenly a shining figure
Larger than an average man.
Crossed the room and then in silence
Took me quickly by the hand.

"Your High School days are nearly over".
Said this person from above;.
We will travel back in memory
And see again those days you love.

Then I saw a flash of lightning,
And I heard an awful roar
Then the wall that was before me
Lay down flat, just like a floor.

Then the floor did seem to lengthen
It stretched out to meet the sky.
It looked like a huge highway
Leading into Franklin High.

Then I saw my dear old classmates
As they started on their way
Their days were full of fun and laughter
Everyone was bright and gay.

And the colors I saw gleaming
As they came into the light
Were colors chosen by our class
The dear old blue and white.

I could see that there were roses
Blooming out beside the gate
'Tis the flower that was chosen
By the class of forty-eight.

All too soon came the finale
For my class is soon to go
We are very sad at parting
Leaving old friends that we know.

Then at last I saw my classmates.
Starting on their way to fame.
Now, I thought, I'll see the future.
Of each classmate by his name.

Then I saw that all was darkness,
And the vision began to fade
"Memory takes us back, not forward
So this figure with me said.

I was then back in my room
And it was no longer hot
For a storm had spent its fury
While I slept beside my cot.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

ALBERT EASTER, TESTATOR

We, the Class of 1948 in thirty-one individual and distinct parts being about to pass out of this sphere of education do declare this to be our last will and testament.

Item I

We give and bequeath to the faculty of Franklin High School, who have been our leaders through four years all the knowledge that we should have acquired and didn't. We know that we have been problems, but keep in mind that we think more of you than we really ever expressed.

Item II

To our principal, Mr. Broome, we leave our sincere appreciation for his guidance and direction. Not only has he been an executive but a true friend at all times. We appreciate the interest he has shown for us all as a class and as individuals.

Item III

To our Alma Mater, Franklin High School, we leave our love. No matter where we go we will still be members of the Class of 1948 and alumni of Franklin High School.

To the Sophomores we leave our mischievous deeds. Hope you get by better than we did.

Item VI

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Sunday, May thirtieth

Processional. . . . . .Largo-George Friedrich Handel
Hymn, "Come thou Almighty King" Wesley, Giardini
Congregation
Invocation (Congregation Standing).Rev. Lonnie Fleming
Anthem, "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" John Sebastian Bach. . . . . .High School Chorus
Sermon . . . . . .Rev. John Jordan
Hymn, "Blest Be The Tie" Fawcett Nageli. .Congregation
Benediction. . . . . .
Recessional. . . . . .

Come, Thou Almighty King. . . . .Blest Be the Tie

1. Come, Thou Almighty King,
Help us Thy Name to sing,
Help us to praise!
Father all glorious!
O'er all victorious,
Come and reigh over us
Ancient of days!

2. Come, Thou incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend!
Come, and Thy people bless
And give Thy word success;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend!

3. Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour!
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in ev'ry heart,
And ne'er from us depart
Spirit of pow'r!

1. Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred mind
Is like to that above.

2. Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

3. When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

CHAMPIONS

To two fine teams we voice our praise,
We're proud of your record, your goals and plays;
In your play and spirit of good sportsmanship
You were true Franklin players from the very first tip.

To your genial coach we express our thanks
For keeping both teams in the winning ranks;
His work has been constant, his leadership right,
Teamplay, to him, is a soul-warming sight.

To the happy, vivacious leaders of cheer--
Yours is the spirit that drives away fear;
We like your actions; we like your zest,
To Maroon and Grey you've given your best.

Zeb Critz

For three years Mr. Critz has served as janitor at Franklin. Caring for two buildings, over 20 classrooms, two furnaces, and an auditorium, is a big job. Early and late, "Zeb" may be seen working to keep our buildings and grounds in order. Our thanks go to him and his family for their efforts.

Well-planned meals and efficient management, combined with good cooking have made our lunch periods very satisfactory this year. Our appreciation is extended to those who have served so faithfully during a time when food was scarce and high; cooking facilities and serving space limited; not to mention the excessive number of people to be served every day. Production of excellent food under such circumstances deserves the highest commendation.
